PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

A passionate and detail-oriented UI/UX Designer and current Master of Computer Applications student, blending a creative eye with robust technical skills. With over a year of experience, I specialize in crafting responsive, user-centric web solutions using CMS platforms and foundational technologies like HTML/CSS. My background is fortified by hands-on development experience, ensuring I deliver not just beautiful interfaces, but also highly functional and maintainable digital experiences. I am driven by a commitment to solving client needs and creating intuitive web flow.
